

Jacinta Hall is a 2005 graduate of the University of Mississippi School of Law. Her legal career began as a clerk to current Mississippi Supreme Court Justice Leslie King when he was the Chief Judge of the Mississippi Court of Appeals. Jacinta then transitioned to the Hinds County Public Defender's Office, where she remained until October 2013. With Hinds County, Jacinta served as the Intern Coordinator and as a lead trial attorney. Jacinta then moved to Memphis, TN, to serve as an Assistant Public Defender with the Law Office of the Shelby County Public Defender, where she represented adults and juveniles. Jacinta has served as a board member and Vice-President of the Mississippi Public Defender's Association and is a graduate of Gideon's Promise—formerly the Southern Public Defender's Training Center—where she currently serves as Alumni Faculty. Over the years, Jacinta has given numerous CLE's on various topics concerning criminal law, including as a public defender Mentor in Residence at Yale Law School. She has also been recognized as a Leader in Law by the Mississippi Business Journal. Currently, Jacinta is an Assistant Federal Public Defender in Jackson, MS, and Adjunct Professor at the University of Mississippi School of Law.